

Statement from the Translator

August 7, 2016

To whom it may concern

I hereby declare that I revised the English of the text “First record of Hamaticolax scutigerulus (Copepoda) in Brazil, an ectoparasite of the spotted goatfish *Pseudupeneus maculatus”, authored by Maurício Laterça Martins and others, and that I am a suitably qualified person to carry out this type of work.

Further information can be obtained from my entry in the directory of the freelance professional translators’ website www.proz.com or by contacting me directly at david.elliff@bsnet.com.br or at daveelliff@yahoo.co.uk.

I am a British national with permanent resident status in Brazil (RNE V169971C).

Yours faithfully
